

Application Privacy Policy

Thank you for using the My Guam WIC website and reviewing the Guam WIC Program Privacy Policy Statement. This Privacy Policy Statement details how the Guam Special Supplemental Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) uses and protects personally identifiable information. This privacy policy only applies to the My Guam WIC website.

WIC Eligibility Assessment for New Users

My Guam WIC users provide information regarding where you live, participation on other government programs, income, and family to determine if you and/or your family qualify for WIC services. The information provided may also be used to help ensure the appropriate nutritional benefits are issued to qualified WIC participants. Information collected during WIC eligibility assessment will not be shared with any outside entities. A Guam WIC clinic representative may contact you with additional questions or to schedule an appointment.

Existing Users

My Guam WIC users will be able to review upcoming appointment information (if applicable) and provide information to help determine if you and/or your family qualify for WIC services. The information provided may also be used to help ensure the appropriate nutritional benefits are issued to qualified WIC participants. Information uploaded to the website will not be shared with any outside entities.

Sign in with Facebook or Google

My Guam WIC users create an account by signing in with either their Facebook or Google account. My Guam WIC obtains the email address associated with your Facebook or Google account to create your My Guam WIC account. My Guam WIC does not save, use or update any information linked to your Facebook or Google account. The Guam WIC Program will not share any information you provide in My Guam WIC to Google or Facebook. The Guam WIC Program values your privacy and will not share your Facebook or Google email address with any other entities.

Data Processing

The Guam WIC Program utilizes and processes the caregiver and family information provided, including: first name, last name, date of birth, phone number, email address, residency information, to determine eligibility for the Guam WIC Program.

Who can I contact to request deletion of data?

If you would like to request to have your data deleted, please contact the Guam WIC Program at 1-671-475-0300.

Who can I contact if I have questions?
